

MINISNAP

Where did Minisnap come from? Now that sounds familiar.. yet different .. Minisnap features the songwriting skills of Kaye Woodward (vocals, guitar) along with fellow Bats, Paul Kean (bass, guitar) and Malcolm Grant (drums) plus Marcus Winstanley from The Undercurrents on guitar. Minisnap has had a strong character since inception, evolving from a dark pop 2 piece with mostly looped rhythm tracks to a 3 piece with Malcolm over the 2 EPs (In My Pocket 2002 and March Hare 2004, distributed online through Smoke CDs). On their first album, Bounce Around, Minisnap is a 4 piece with the occasional guest appearance of Andy Scott on Charango. Minisnap met Roque in Hamburg last May. He is from Cloudberry which is an indiepop label based in sunny (sometimes stormy) Miami, Florida. Purveyors of the sound of jangly guitars Cloudberry love vinyl and especially 7" singles. They're bringing out a 7" of two previously unreleased Minisnap songs. Artwork: Ian Dingman.

Kaye Woodward's songs are pretty, delicate pop numbers that, for the most part, float over chiming guitars.

Sunday Times (London)

Charming, melodic and upbeat pop that will bring sunshine to your ears.
